Give Nature a Lift.

People expect too much of Nature. They trifle with their health and their constitutions, and then they are surprised that they fall sick. The pressure of constant mental or bodily labor upon the animal powers is tremendous. Very few systems and constitutions can bear up against this pressure unassisted. Add to this the unhealthy influences which lurk unseen in the air we breathe, the water we drink, the artificial heat with which we endeavor to chase away the cold and marrow-searching moisture of winter, and it would seem to require almost superhuman vigor to keep in perfect health at this rigorous season without reinforcing the physical energies.

But how reinforce them? Certainly not with adulterated stimulants. There is no poison in the outer air, or in the atmosphere of furnace heated rooms, or workshops, or factories, so pernicious as those deadly-burning fluids.

Why use them, when

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,

New Jersey Legislature—Resolutions Condemnatory of the President's Policy.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 22.—Resolutions favoring negro suffrage and condemning President Johnson's Policy were introduced in the Senate, to-day, by Mr. Scoville, (Republican,) and lost. They were as follows:

WHEREAS, It has been decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, that the great political law of America is that every change of government shall be conducted under the supervision and authority of some existing legislative body, extending the protection of positive law to voters, defining the general right of voters, and protecting them in the exercise of the elective franchise; and

WHEREAS, It is a great principle of the American Government that legislation shall guide political changes, and that somewhere in the United States, there is an always permanent organized authority which guides the footsteps of those who seek to restore Governments which are demoralized and broken down; therefore

Resolved, That Congress, guided by the highest pre-existing political authority, ought, under the fourth article of the Constitution, to guarantee to the States lately in rebellion a Republican form of government.

Resolved, That a policy which utterly ignores the rights, civil and political, of the freemen, some of whom have sold their blood for the salvation of the Republic does not possess, and cannot possess, any elements of vitality or justice.

Resolved, For the State of New Jersey, and in the name of the country, that we tender at once our sympathy and respect to the bold and determined men in Congress who have been, and are to-day, faithful to the principles which made us a party and carried us triumphantly through four years of civil war.

Resolved, That the great cause which proclaims equality before the law, as one of the fundamental principles, is strong enough to survive the defection of any partizan conflict. We will adhere to, and maintain the doctrines of the Declaration of Independence.

Mr. Scoville, in offering these resolutions said opposition to liberty is a bad investment wherever made. Andrew Johnson made the worst investment of his life, when he vetoed the freedmen's bureau bill; he abandoned justice and trampled upon principles, that elevated him in life. A lively and exciting discussion occurred on the resolutions.

The Newark and New York Railroad bill has been postponed to next Wednesday.

From Mexico—Newspapers Warned—Captured Republican Officers—Railroad in Progress.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The latest Mexican news by the steamer Moro Castle, states that the two responsible editors of the Corretin newspaper, published at Orizaba, had been imprisoned for alleged infringement of the imperial press laws, and the proprietors of three other newspapers had been notified by government officers, that their journals would be suspended unless they changed their tone.

General Pieras, Imperialist, had been appointed to the command of the State of Sinoloa.

The railroad in course of construction between Puebla and Mexico City, will, it is expected, be completed by May next.

Nova Scotian Parliament—Speech of the Lieutenant Governor.

HALIFAX, Feb. 22.—Parliament met to-day. Lieut. Governor Williams made a speech, in which he congratulates the members upon the condition of the Province. Its trade and the receipts from other sources greatly exceed any previous year. The Lieutenant Governor is gratified at the condition of the militia, and regrets that notwithstanding the efforts of the British North American colonies, the United States adhered to their determination to abrogate the Reciprocity Treaty. He is sanguine of the confederation of the Provinces, and of the fostering care of England, and that trade will be so directed in the new channels, and the fisheries protected, so as to meet the emergency. Contracts for a railroad from Truro to New Brunswick, and from Windsor to Annapolis, have been made.

The Reciprocity Treaty—American Fishermen Cautioned—West Indies Commission.

MONTREAL, Feb. 22.—The meetings of the Executive Councils have been brought to a close. The subjects under consideration were the abrogation of the Reciprocity Treaty, frontier defenses and public health measures.

A proclamation has been issued cautioning American fishermen against in-shore fisheries, after the 17th of March next.

A proclamation to prevent the importation of diseased cattle will appear in the next issue of the Canada Gazette.

Letters from the Commissioners to the West Indies, report satisfactory progress. They hope to complete their investigations early in March.

The Paraguayan War.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Additional details concerning the war between Paraguay and the allies have been received.

On the 23d of December, the Brazilian land forces, numbering twenty-five thousand men, had arrived in the vicinity of the strong Paraguayan position at Pass De Patria, and would be joined in a few days by ten thousand Argentines and Orientals, soon after which it was intended to make a combined land and naval attack on the Paraguayans and to push forward into the country of the latter.

Diseases of various kinds still prevailed to an alarming extent among the troops on both sides.

The Massachusetts Legislature and the Veto.

BOSTON, February 22.—In the Massachusetts House of Representatives yesterday afternoon, a series of resolutions were introduced deprecating the act of President Johnson in vetoing the Freedmen's Bureau bill, and asserting that it is the duty of the President to give the negro that protection for which its honor stands pledged and to which the gallant conduct of the colored soldiers entitles them.

The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

The House refused to receive a resolution thanking the President for his veto message by a vote of 90 to 18.

Rumored Differences Between the President and General Grant—Washington's Birthday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The National Intelligencer feels warranted in contradicting representations which have been extensively published that some alienation of feeling between the President and Lieutenant General Grant was involved as a consequence of suppression and revival of the Richmond Examiner.

The birthday of Washington is being duly celebrated here. Business is nearly altogether suspended and the public Departments are closed in honor of the day. Flags are flying in all directions. The weather is bright, calm and spring like.

From Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 22.—Cotton more active, but little doing, at 36@[illegible]c.

The members of the Legislature persist in absenting themselves. No quorum was had to-day.

There is to be a grand mass meeting here to-morrow, to indorse the President and Administration. Delegates are arriving from all parts of the State. Business will be suspended, and the military will unite in the celebration.

There will be a grand billiard tournament here early next week.

Conservative Meeting in Washington.—National Monument Society.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—A large political meeting was held to-day in Grover's Theater, in favor of the President's policy. The National Monument Society held their anniversary to-day. President Johnson presided, and made a few remarks, alluding to Washington's Farewell Address, as containing the principles by which he sought to be guided, and expressing the hope that all the States would continue their contributions to the structure to be completed as an enduring memorial to the restoration of all the States to their proper relations to the General Government.

California Legislature.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 22.—The Legislature having passed a concurrent resolution recommending the appointment of Frederick Billings to a seat in the Cabinet, the Governor has approved the resolution. This action was taken, however, before anything was known of the President's veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill.

The anniversary of Washington's birthday was celebrated here by a large military procession, and the partial suspension of business.

The Winooski and Algonquin—Official Report.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The official report of Chief Engineers Danby, Fithian and Kellogg, general inspectors of the steam machinery in the navy, appointed by the Department to conduct the competitive experiments of the Winooski and Algonquin, is published. It declares that the contractor for the machinery of the Algonquin has failed in every guarantee, and that that vessel is unfit for service. It states that neither of the vessels steered well.

Indiana Union State Convention

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 22.—The Union State Convention met at 10 o'clock A. M. Maj. Gen. Lew Wallace was elected temporary Chairman. His address deprecated a division, and urged harmony. After the appointment of committees on permanent organization and resolutions, the Convention adjourned till 2 P. M.

VERY LATEST TELEGRAMS.

HONORS TO WINTER DAVIS.

ADDRESS BY SPFAKER COLFAX.

EULOGY BY HON. J. A. J. CRESWELL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Before eleven o'clock this morning the galleries were crowded in anticipation of the memorial exercises in honor of the memory of the late Hon. Henry Winter Davis. The flags above the Speaker's desk were draped in black, and other insignia of mourning were exhibited. A fine portrait of the honored dead appeared through the folds of the National banner, above the Speaker's desk. The Marine band, during the hour preceding the opening of the exercises, occupied the ante-room of the reporter gallery and furnished appropriate music.

At twelve o'clock the Senators entered. The Judges of the Supreme Court, preceded by Chief Justice Chase, also many officers of the army, and others, followed. The President was not present, but Secretaries Stanton and McCullough entered the Hall before the opening of the exercises. Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister, Gov. Fenton, of New York, and Judge Advocate General Holt are among the dignitaries present.

After a prayer by the Chaplain, the declaration of Independence was read by Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives. The reading of the Declaration was followed by the playing of a dirge by the band. Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Speaker of the House of Representatives, then rose and said:

Ladies and Gentlemen: The duty has been devolved upon me of introducing to you the friend and fellow member of Henry Winter Davis, and I will detain you but a moment from his address, to which you will listen with saddened interest. The world always appreciates and honors courage—the courage of Christianity, which sustained martyrs in amphitheatre, at the stake, or on the rack—the courage of patriotism which inspired millions in our own land to realize the historic fable of Curtius, and fill up with their own bodies if need be, the yawning chasm. The world always appreciates and honors courage, which is witnessed in the pest house and hospital; at the death bed of the homeless, and the prison cell of the convict. But there is a courage of statesmen besides and nobly was it sustained by a statesman whose national services we commemorate to-day. Inflexibly hostile to oppression, whether of the slave or American soil, or of Republicans struggling against monarchical invasion, faithful, always, to principle and to liberty, championing always the cause of the downtrodden, fearless as he was eloquent in his avowals, he was mourned throughout a continent, and from the Patapsco to the Gulf, the blessings of those who had been ready to perish, followed him to his tomb. It is fitting, therefore, though dying a private citizen, that the nation should render him marked and unusual honors in this Hall, the scene of so many of his intellectual triumphs, and I have great pleasure in introducing to you as the orator of the day, Hon. J. A. J. Creswell, his colleague in the thirty-eighth Congress, and now Senator from the State of Maryland.

Mr. Crewell then delivered an eulogy upon the life and services of the eminent dead.

Mr. Creswell commenced by an appropriate reference to the memories of the day and the times of him in whose honor it is observed, and to the recent memorial services of the second Father of his Country, and then proceeded to give a brief biography of the early life of Mr. Davis, his struggles for an education and a profession, with a record of the subsequent events of his remarkable career, his political opinions, and his labors, and his triumph of freedom and patriotism.

He pictured vividly the opening scenes of the rebellion in Maryland, revealing the deceased as the central figure and master spirit among the staunch opponents of secession on the stump, in the columns of newspapers, and in every other field of loyal action; constant, untiring and determined; almost ubiquitous in his activity and never desponding in the darkest hours; cheering his friends and astounding his enemies, who, while cursing him were yet charmed by his marvelous tongue.

He illustrated the Congressional career of the deceased, and his zeal for Unionism, and antagonism to slavery, with gems from his speeches, the recital of which drew tears from many eyes, among his former associates.

At the close of the oration, Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to the orator, with the request of a copy of the oration, for printing, which was unanimously carried.

The benediction was then given, and the concourse dispersed.

LATEST FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Debate on Fenianism in Parliament.

SEWARD THE REAL HEAD CENTRE.

The Bagdad Affair in Europe.

THE WAR BETWEEN SPAIN AND CHILI.

STATE OF THE FOREIGN MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The steamer City of Baltimore, from Liverpool on the 10th, has arrived. The Cuba arrived up at eleven o'clock.

In the House of Commons Watkins gave notice that on the 16th he should ask the Chancellor of Exchequer whether any or what representation had been made on behalf of Her Majesty's Government to the Government of the United States with reference to the Fenian organization in America, more especially with regard to the employment of American officers and the issue of bonds by the so-called Irish Republic.

In the debate on the address in response to the Queen's speech, the O'Donohue enlarged upon the Irish grievances, and moved an amendment to the address declaring it to be the duty of the ministers to examine into the causes of the Irish dissatisfaction, and remove them.

After a general debate on Fenianism, in the course of which it was charged that the conspiracy was of American origin, and that Seward was the real Head Centre, the amendment was rejected—346 to 25, and the address was agreed to.

The cattle plague was the leading topic in both Houses.

The Morning Herald believes the existence of the ministry depends upon the way it deals with the subject.

The Dublin police had discovered a second extensive Fenian manufactory of ammunition in that city.

Some soldiers charged with Fenianism were being court-martialed.

In the official dispatches from the French minister in Washington to his government respecting the Bagdad affair, he announced that the United States government has thoroughly decided not to allow itself to be drawn into a conflict with France through filibusters or Juarez's agents.

The Spanish government has decided to issue letters of marque against Chili, upon proof that Chili has adopted that mode of warfare.

The Minister of State announced in Cortes, that Peru is probably at the present time in open hostility with Spain.

It is reported that the Italian government has sent an energetic note to Madrid, in consequence of the serious declarations concerning Italy in the Spanish diplomatic books.

It is stated that Austria is about to send a note to Prussia, firmly refusing the demands of the latter in regard to the Duchies.

The Prussian Chamber of Deputies, have passed a resolution by a large majority, protesting against the attempt of the Supreme Court, to restrict liberty of speech.

THE RUMORED CABINET DISRUPTION GROUNDLESS.

Death of an Eminent Missionary,

FREEDMEN AFFAIRS IN LOUISIANA.

Mission to Ecuador.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The statement telegraphed hence that there is soon to be an immediate and general disruption of the cabinet, are entirely groundless.

Rev. Rufus F. Buell died in this city yesterday. He was for many years an eminent Missionary of the Baptist denomination to Greece.

Maj. Gen. Baird, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for Louisiana, has published a circular to the planters of St. Martin's in reply to certain resolutions adopted by them at a meeting to regulate contracts with freedmen in which he compliments them for their liberality and justice, and speaks of the resolutions as highly creditable to them, but suggests a few improvements that would render the rules provided by the resolutions acceptable by all the parties concerned.

The Times' Washington special says: Mr. Hassaurek, Minister to Ecuador, has sent in his resignation to the State Department. Already there are four or five candidates for the succession, all from Ohio. Among the applicants are two members of the Ohio legislature, namely, Messrs. Stanton and Nixon.

Washington's Birthday in Cincinnati—Attempt to Blow Up a Newspaper Office.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 22.—Washington's birthday is being quietly celebrated to-day. No demonstrations of consequence.

An unsuccessful attempt was made this morning to blow up the office of the West Virginia Journal, at Charlestown, West Virginia, by a torpedo. No damage was done besides shattering the doors and windows.

MEETING AT COOPER INSTITUTE.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF NEW YORK.

PRESIDENT'S POLICY ENDORSED.

Speech of Secretary Seward.

COMPROMISE OF DIFFERENCES URGED.

He Favors the Admission of the Southern Members

VETO MESSAGE VINDICATED.

THE PRESIDENT CONSIDERS THE WAR [illegible]

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The Cooper Institute was thronged to-night by the people of New York. All the streets in the immediate neighborhood were also filled with thousands of supporters of the President. Hon Francis B. Cutting presided, assisted by a large number of the most prominent citizens as Vice Presidents. The meeting was very enthusiastic.

David Dudley Field presented an address to the people of New York, and resolutions. The address is to the effect that the first question before the people is the great one of pacification. What the country needs is repose. The conflict of arms has ceased. The conflict of passion which led to arms should cease also. Our brave soldiers (cheers) feel no enmity towards those they have overcome. [illegible] There are, however, [illegible] the constitution, the power of determining who shall or shall not enjoy the elective franchise belongs exclusively to the respective States. New York has no more right to say who shall or shall not vote in Ohio than Ohio has to say who shall vote in New York. [illegible] fought for the country, that does not necessarily give them the right to vote [illegible] in its government. If it were otherwise every brave boy from sixteen to twenty-one, who fought in the Union ranks, should have a vote [illegible] fought for a country, and they have it. We should welcome our emancipated brother to the rights of manhood, but when we are asked to give all men of his race, at the moment of their emancipation, the right to participate in the Government, we must answer in the words of one of their number, more intelligent than many others, white or black, "The able bodied only bear arms, the able minded only should vote."

The address commends the President's veto, and expresses the conviction that the exclusion from representation of the eleven States now unrepresented in Congress of the loyal men who were fairly chosen, and can take the oath, is a dangerous usurpation. It concludes by expressing confidence in the integrity and fidelity to the principles, in reference to which he was elected, of Andrew Johnson, a hearty commendation of the general doctrines of his two messages, and a readiness to support him on all constitutional measures for the public welfare.

The resolutions are to the same effect, and in addition approve the action of Senator Morgan and Representatives Raymond and Darling in sustaining the President's veto.

Mr. Seward said, after a few words of introduction: What shall I speak of or about? The call of your meeting explains the subject; but first let me say I am not here as an alarmist to tell you that the nation is in peril or danger; in peril if you adopt these opinions; in peril if you reject them; in peril if you adopt the views of a party or real majority of Congress, or if you reject them. It is not in peril in any way, nor do I think that the cause of liberty and freedom, the cause of progress or civilization, the cause of national aggrandizement, present or future, material or moral, is in danger of being long arrested, whether you adopt one set of opinions or another.

The Union, that is to say the nation, has been restored after all the perils. The old ship has passed from the tempest into the verge of a safe harbor, and is now securely riding into her mooring, without a broken spar or a leak. There are some small reefs yet to pass, as she approaches those moorings. One pilot says that she can safely enter directly through them. The other says that she must back, and lowering sail, take time to go around them. That is all the difference. It is merely difference of opinion between the pilots. I should not practice my habitual charity if I did not admit that I think them both sincere and honest, but the vessel will go as safely one way as the other. The worst that need happen will be that by taking the wrong instead of the right passage, or even taking the right passage in the wrong way, the vessel may roll a little, and some timid, capable, and cautious politicians and [illegible] the people of this continent there shall not be many discordant ones, but one united nation. A Joint Committee of fifteen, in 1849, succeeded in excluding California for eight months, till a majority of the nation should compromise and silence forever, the debate upon slavery. The compromise was by its terms to be perpetual. The compromise of 1850, lasted but four years, and then perished, giving place to the now happily consummated adjustment of the slavery question, by the complete abrogation of that institution.

When I left Congress in 1861, Committees and Conventions demanded stipulations that fetters be put on New Mexico, Nevada and Colorado. You can never keep States out of the Union. The present distrust of future States, or of existing States, have no substantial grounds. They are begotten of miserable fears and factions. If ever this thing of keeping out States by Joint Resolutions of Congress, would have had a chance of permanent success, that time has passed away. No State has ever been hindered to come into the Union, except on questions of African bondage, which has now gone to the dogs, and is utterly finished. No State will ever hereafter be hindered from coming into the Union on the ground of slavery. It is a grave error to suppose that the tendency to Union has anything alarming in it. A territory wants to become a State, because it is a pleasant and good thing to possess the privileges of a State. I would not keep a State in a territorial condition any longer than compelled to. In the beginning, practically every State had slavery. We abolished it in some States, without disorder, and when slavery raised itself in opposition to the government, we destroyed it altogether. We have done all this in ninety years, without an imperial government or proconsular territorial system, but in equal States presided over by a federal or restricted government. They are settling the whole case of the African in the West Indies just as we are.

The conflict of opinion between the President and Congress, in reference to the Freedmen's Bureau, is, in its consequences, comparatively unimportant, and would excite little interest if it stood alone. Both agree that this Bureau was created for the transition period between war and peace, and should cease at the end of that period. The President thinks that period has nearly passed, and that the original provision is sufficient, while Congress thinks the orignal provision needs enlarging.

I agree with the President, in the hope that the extraordinary provision which the bill makes will not be necessary, but that the whole question may be simplified by simple reference to the existing law. The law of March 3d, 1865, which created the Freedmen's Bureau, provides that it shall continue in force during the war of the rebellion, and one full year thereafter. When does that year expire? In the President's judgment, as I understand the matter, the war of the rebellion, has been coming, and is still coming to an end, but it is not yet fully closed. It is on this ground that he maintains an army, continues the writ of habeas corpus, and exercise martial law, when these things were these things were necessary in the rebel States. The existence of rebellion was legally proclaimed in 1861. The end of rebellion ought to be and may be expected to be announced by a solemn competent declaration of the President and Congress. For all practicable purposes, rebellion will, in law, come to an end if the President or Congress, one or both, officially announces its termination.

Now suppose the announcement to be made by the President, and by Congress, or by either of them, we know that in case the Freedmen's Bureau is continued by virtue of the limitation prescribed in the Act of March 3d, 1865, one year after such proclamation shall be made. Thus the Freedmen's Bureau would continue by original limitation until the 22d day of February, 1867, a very proper day on which to bring it to an end. If Congress should find it necessary to prolong its existence, it can at once take the necessary steps, for it will at that date have been in operation nearly three years.

Ought the President of the United States to be denounced in the house of his enemies—much more ought he be denounced in a house of his friends for refusing, in the absence of any necessity, to occupy or retain and to exercise power greater than have ever been exercised by any imperial magistrate in the world. I trust this fault of declining Imperial powers too hastily tendered by a too confiding Congress, may be forgiven by a generous people. It will be a sad hour for the republic when the refusal of unnecessary powers and patronage by the President shall be held to be a crime. When it shall be so considered, the time will have arrived for setting up at the White House an imperial throne, and surrounding the Executive with imperial legions.

The meeting was also addressed by Postmaster General Dennison, Henry J. Raymond, Francis B. Cutting, Daniel S. Dickinson and Geo. Opdyke, and dispersed at a late hour.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Meeting in Support of the Administration.

ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—There was a mass meeting at Grover's Theatre to-day, in support of the President's policy. The edifice was crowded to its fullest capacity. A large number of persons were addressed from the stands. Among the speakers were Montgomery Blair, S. S. Cox, Judge Kinney, Representatives Smith and Trimble. The principal meeting was presided over by Philip A. Kendall, the oldest member of the Washington Bar.

A series of resolutions were passed, strongly approving the course adopted by the President, and calling upon the citizens of every State, of every shade of political opinion, to stand by the policy adopted by him. At the close of the meeting, a procession was formed and proceeded to an open space in front of the north portico of the Executive Mansion, and the Committee delivered to the President, the resolutions adopted by them.

The President soon made his appearance and was met with an enthusiastic reception. He addressed the assemblage as follows:

Fellow Citizens—for I presume I have the right to address you as such—to the committee who have conducted and organized this meeting so far, I have to tender my sincere thanks for the compliment and approbation they have manifested in their personal address to myself and in the resolutions they have adopted.

I am free to say to you on this occasion that it is extremely gratifying to me to know that so large a portion of my fellow citizens approve and endorse the policy that has been adopted, and is intended to be carried out. That policy has been one which was intended to restore the glorious union of the States, and their original relations to the Government of the United States.

This seems to be a day peculiarly appropriate for such a manifestation, the day that gave birth to him who founded this Government; the Father of his Country; of him who stood at the head of this Government. Then, all felt as one who loved this Union. This day, I say, is peculiarly appropriate to indorse the restoration of these States, founded by the Father of his Country, George Washington. Washington, whose name this city bears is embalmed in the hearts of all who love free government—Washington, who was first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his [illegible]

RUSSIA AND AMERICA.

BANQUET TO THE AMERICAN MINISTER.

Complimentary Speeches by Gen. Clay and Secretary Curtin.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The banquet to our Minister in Russia, by a corporation of merchants of Moscow, was a very enthusiastic affair. It was designed as an acknowledgment of the courtesies shown the Russian fleet while at this city. The President of the Imperial exchange said that Americans, setting aside all considerations of minor importance, and paying no regard to the changing of politics have ever shown themselves friends to this people, and they therefore greatfully acknowledge their amicable disposition towards this Empire; and let us drink to the health of the worthy and highly esteemed Andrew Johnson, President of the great power on the other side of the ocean, "The President of the United States of America." Protracted applause followed this toast, the band joining in with "Hail Columbia."

At the request of the committee, General Clay permitted the following telegram to be sent to the American Consulate at Liverpool, for transmission by mail to his address:

"To His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States of America:—The merchants of Moscow, welcoming to their city the Minister of the United States, drink to the health of Your Excellency."

(Signed by the President of Committee of Reception.)

Mr. Clay responded in a suitable manner, returning thanks. Mr. Curtin, American Secretary of Legation, addressed the company. In allusion to the Russian Telegraph, he said: "I may point to the Russo-American Telegraph as a common achievement of both nations, and as a work of world-wide renown and importance. I venture to say that no enterprise ever enjoyed anything like the popularity which has rewarded the scheme of binding the two countries together. My countrymen patiently await the moment while giving expression to their feelings of respect and gratitude, when the President of the United States will profit by the completion of the new line, and dispatch his first salutatory telegram to the Czar. You have spoken of the past and future of Russia and America. To this, I reply that both of us have nothing to be ashamed of in the past, and nothing to fear in the future. In the past, Russia and America, firmly relying upon God, have both battled for their independence, and annihilated foreign influence in their midst, in whatever shape it might assume. Thus far we have been successful, and we wish for nothing better than that God may be as gracious to us and our children as he has been to our ancestors. As regards the future, the two countries will be only more intimately connected, having learned to know each other in the past. I am convinced, gentlemen, that the more intimately acquainted my countrymen shall become with you, the more they will love you.

After the address Mr. Curtin was seized and kissed by every Russian present.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Social Congregational Gathering.

There is a universal complaint in congregations everywhere, of a want of sociability among the members. Some complain that their congregation is more unsociable than any other. But on careful examination, it is found, generally, that there is not much difference among congregations in this matter. In every church there are little circles, just as there are in society, which possess a kind of "elective affinity."

It was our pleasure to be present last evening at a social gathering, in the Second U. P. Church, of which Rev. James Prestley D. D, is pastor. This was one of the most pleasant and sociable meetings that we have ever been in. Every heart seemed to overflow with kindness and good nature, and every face was radiant with delight; and if the members are as sociable at all times, the most squeamish cannot complain of a want of a reciprocated good will. The unselfishness of the members was demonstrated by the presence of a number of invited guests of other churches and denominations, among whom we noticed Rev. E. H. Stevenson, a Missionary in Sealkote, India, Rev. J. B. Clarke D. D., Rev. Doctor and Mrs. Douglas, Charles Arbuthnot, Esq., C. A. Dickey, Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Andrews, and Rev. S. B. and Mrs. Reed.

The congregation and their guests assembled in the church at 7 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Prestley presided, and made a short address, in which he explained the object of the meeting. After singing a portion of sacred psalmody, Rev. W. J. Reid led the assembly in prayer. Mr. J. S. Sands then ascended the platform, and after a neat and appropriate address, presented to Major William Frew, a beautiful Photograph Album, in behalf of the teachers in the Sabbath School. The Album contained a photograph of Dr. and Mrs. Prestley, the teachers in the school, and as many of the scholars as could be obtained. It bears the following inscription, in gold letters: "Presented to William Frew, Superintendent, by the Sabbath School Teachers of the 2d U. P. Church, Pittsburgh, as a mark of their love and respect, February 22d, 1866." Major Frew responded in a very touching and eloquent speech.

After singing, Rev. John Douglas, D. D., having been called upon made a few remarks. The congregation then adjourned to the Lecture Room and partook of a sumptuous repast, which was prepared by the ladies and served up in a style that would have done credit to the most celebrated purveyors. About five hundred persons feasted to satiety, and left many baskets of fragments.

After replenishing the inner man, and engaging in pleasant social intercourse, the assembly repaired again to the body of the church and enjoyed a "feast of reason" in the form of spirited addresses from Col. and Dr. J. B. Clarke; Revs. S. B. Reid, W. J. Reid, W. H. Andrews, C. A. Dickey, and E. H. Stevenson, which were interspersed with some vocal music under the lead of Mr. Robertson.

At a late hour the assembly adjourned highly delighted with the evening's entertainments.

Rowdyism in Allegheny—Arrest of the Guilty Parties.

On Thursday afternoon an affray of a very serious character occurred in the First Ward Allegheny city, under the following circumstances: It appears that a German purchased a load of grain at the Pearl Steam Mill, and while driving off with his load, one of the sacks fell upon the street. A number of young men who chanced to be passing at the time, witnessed the occurrence, took possession of the sack, and were about making off with it, when they were approached by Mr. R. T. Kennedy, proprietor of the mill, who remonstrated with them on their conduct. Upon this, the roughs attacked Mr. Kennedy, and beat him severely, though not seriously. A son of Mr. K's, who repaired to his rescue, was also beaten about the face and he, together with his father, was compelled to draw off, upon one of the party producing a large dirk or butcher knife, which he attempted to use.

Information of the affair was lodged at the Mayor's office, and after a search of about one hour two of them were ferretted out by officers Jos. Campbell and Scott, and proved to be John McBratny, and Robert McKarahan. They were loitering on the corner of Federal and Lacock streets, and when the officers approached they fled to a vacant lot, in the vicinity, where the latter overtook and captured them, after considerable of a struggle. Scott conducted McKarahan to the tombs, but McBratny succeeded in breaking loose from Campbell's grasp, and started on a run. He had proceeded but a short distance, when the officer drew a revolver and compelled his prisoner to stand. He was again seized, but after walking a few steps, commenced to struggle desperately with his custodian, and for some ten minutes it was doubtful whether he would be taken or not. Officers McKnight and Hess, opportunely made their appearance, however, and the man was soon ensconced in the tombs, where he will remain until this morning, when a hearing will be had.

McBratny has been but a short time from the army. He was identified by Mr. Kennedy and others, as the one who flourished the knife. The attack upon Mr. Kennedy was cowardly, and uncalled for, and as he has preferred a charge of aggravated assault and battery against the parties, we presume they will either have to give competent bail or be committed for court.

The Charge Against Mr. Hill.

The publication in our paper, a day or two since, that Mr. James B. Hill had been arrested and compelled to give bail upon a charge of the larceny of a wagon, was improper and unjust. A dispute does exist between him and other parties as to the title to a wagon, but its determination can only be arrived at on the civil side of the court. In fact, the wagon was stolen from the premises of Mr. Hill, on Wednesday night. Mr. Hill made information before the Mayor, obtained a search warrant, found his wagon, and has now lawful possession of the same. A charge of larceny has been made before the Mayor against the parties in whose possession it was found, and they are now under bail to answer the charge.

We may state, in this connection, that the publication was made inadvertently, and if we had known the facts, as they really exist, the charge would not have been made public without the necessary explanation. To those who know Mr. Hill, it will be unnecessary for us to say that his character is above reproach. He is a gentleman of honor and integrity, and having for so many years maintained a character for honesty and uprightness, he is not likely, at this late day, to sacrifice his good name by laying himself open to a charge so disreputable as that alleged agaist him.

Bold Robbery—Three Hundred Dollars Stolen.

Another extensive robbery, the particulars of which have been kept remarkably quiet, occurred in Allegheny a few days ago. It appears that Messrs. Patterson & Hay, shoe dealers on Federal street, had placed some three hundred dollars in the safe at the rear of the store, the door of which was left open. On looking for the money a short time after, it was found to be missing. It was ascertained that a young man who keeps a store some distance from the city had been left in the vicinity of the safe, whilst the proprietors were waiting on a number of customers, and he, being suspected, was yesterday arrested by officer Bowden, and held for a hearing before Mayor Morrison. We refrain from giving the name of the party arrested, until a hearing is had, as we may be doing him injustice. The defendant has heretofore sustained a good reputation for honesty.

Special Meeting of the Allegheny Councils—The Frame Law Ordinance Defeated—The Question to be Submitted to the People.

A special meeting of Allegheny Councils was held on Thursday evening, February 22d, for the purpose of considering the proposed repeal of the frame law ordinance.

In Select present, Messrs. Drum, Hall, Huckenstein, Myler, Patterson, A. D. Smith, J. B. Smith, C. C. Smith, Thomas, and President McBrier. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Mr Patterson submitted "an ordinance regulating the erection of wooden buildings," which provides that from and after the passage of the ordinance, it shall be lawful to erect wooden buildings, to be used as dwelling houses, outside of the following described limits or boundary: Beginning at the Allegheny river, and extending up Anderson street to and up Church avenue, and Cedar avenue to North avenue; thence up said avenue to Esplanade street; thence up said street to a line parallel with Locust street, and along said street to Federal street, down Federal street to Benton alley; thence west on the line of said alley to Pasture lane; thence along said lane to Boquet street; thence west along said street to Allegheny avenue; thence along said avenue to Ridge street; thence along said street to Irwin avenue; thence along said avenue to Martin street; thence along said street to Craig street and Lacock street; thence along said streets to the west side of the Pennsylvania canal, and thence by the west side of said canal to the Allegheny river.

Mr. Hall opposed the passage of the ordinance, believing that the measure would not prove beneficial to the city. He was opposed to any change in the existing ordinance.

Mr. A. D. Smith opposed the ordinance in any shape, but if it could not be defeated then he was in favor of an entire repeal of the old law, and giving every citizen an equal chance.

Mr. Myler was in favor of the ordinance, and as it had been presented as a "compromise," he regretted to hear the gentlemen favor a total repeal.

Mr. Patterson spoke at length in favor of the ordinance and pointed out the advantages that would result by allowing the erection of wooden buildings, in the localities designated. It would have a tendency to increase our population, benefit our manufacturing interests, and was an act of justice to the working classes, and men of moderate means.

Mr. Thomas feared that the "love for the poor man" would amount to about "thirty-three per cent." In other words, that men of capital would build huts and rent them to poor men at such a figure as would secure a return of their investment in about three years. He had heard a man boast that he would build houses at six hundred dollars, which he could rent for sixteen dollars a month! He was opposed to the ordinance in toto.

Mr. J. B. Smith remarked that the subject of repeal had now been before Councils for three months, and no remonstrance had been made. There were petitions in favor of the repeal, and he had a right to infer that the citizens were in favor of it. Men were absolutely driven out of the city in consequence of the scarcity of houses, and believing that the measure would prove beneficial he was prepared to vote for it.

The vote was then taken on Mr. Smith's amendment, which was lost.

Mr. A. G. Smith then moved to amend by suspending the ordinance for one year, over the whole city. Withdrawn.

Mr. Thomas stated that inasmuch as the argument had been advanced that the proposed measure was for the benefit of the poor man, or men of small means, he would now go a step further, and vote for the ordinance if amended so as to allow no one to erect wooden buildings, except those who intend to occupy them. He did not offer the amendment himself, but wished to test the sincerity of some of the friends of the measure.

The yeas and nays were then called upon the final passage of the ordinance, which resulted—Yeas: Messrs. Drum, Myler, Patterson, J. B. Smith, and President McBrier—5. Nays—Messrs. Hall, Huckenstein, A. D. Smith, C. C. Smith, and Thomas—5. There being a tie vote, the ordinance was declared lost.

On motion, Councils resolved to take up other business.

Mr. Myler presented a petition from a large number of citizens of the Fourth ward, asking that Councils appropriate five hundred feet of hose to the Columbia Hose Company. He moved that the request of the petitioners be granted.

A very animated discussion ensued upon this matter, which was finally referred to the Committee on Engines and Hose.

Mr. Drum offered a resolution that a Committee be appointed to confer with the Columbia Hose Company, and ascertain whether they would be willing to join the paid Fire Department. Lost.

Mr. Patterson presented a petition from residents of South Canal street, asking for an additional gas lamp. Referred to the Gas Committee.

On motion adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Present, Messrs. Brown, Campbell, Cunningham, Falhauber, Hanna, Megraw, G. N. Miller, Wm. Miller, McNeil, Riddle, Walter and President Senney.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

On motion of Mr. George N. Miller, the rules were suspended, when Mr. Cunningham presented a petition from citizens of the Second ward, asking for the grading of Bidwell, Franklin and Hamilton streets and Ohio avenue. The petition was accepted, and the prayers of petitioners granted.

Mr. Cunningham presented a petition for the erection of public gas lamps on Franklin, Bidwell and Hamilton streets. Referred to Committee on Gas.

Mr. McNeil offered a resolution instructing the City Solicitor to require the managers of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company to keep the footwalk of their bridge across the Allegheny river in proper repair, according to the agreement between the city and said company. Adopted.

Mr. G. N. Miller presented a resolution instructing the Committee on City Property to inquire into the practicability of erecting dwelling houses upon the grounds surrounding the Water Works, for the accommodation of the engineer and other employees of said works, and to report at the next meeting of Councils. Adopted.

Mr. Megraw offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Wharves and Landings to prevent the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company from obstructing any of the wharves or landings belonging to the city.

Mr. George N. Miller presented bills amounting to $600, for improving the General Grant Engine House.

Mr. Hanna stated that under the city ordinances all contracts amounting to over twenty dollars should be given out by proposals, and moved that the bills be laid on the tables. Adopted.

Mr. Falhauber offered a resolution instructing the Mayor to issue his proclamation, calling a special city election, to be held on the second Tuesday of March, for the purpose of determining whether the frame building law shall or shall not be repealed. Adopted. S. C. concurred, provided the election be held at the usual places of holding election, and by the regular election officers.

Mr. Cunningham offered an ordinance, designating how the city police shall be appointed, which was read and referred to Police Committee.

The Councils then adjourned.

Amusements.

THEATRE.—Miss Julia Daly appears to be as much of a favorite with the theatre going public as some of her predecessors, and she fills the house nightly to witness her great character of Our Female American Cousin. Mr. Sam Ryan has also incorporated himself into the good graces of the Pittsburgh public. To-night the bill will be varied, as it is the occasion of Miss Daly's benefit, and the performances will consist of the comic Military drama of the Child of the Regiment, and the Fool of the Family. Mr. Ryan appears as Gollypop in Dodging for a Wife. In addition to the other attractions, we may mention in this connection that Major General Sweeny, Fenian Secretary of War, together with other celebrities of the Fenian brotherhood will be present.

OPERA HOUSE.—This evening the ever popular Laura Keene takes her farewell benefit. The piece selected for the occasion is the new Irish Drama, entitled "The wives of Ireland, or the Donogh." Miss Keene's fame as an actress is too well attested to need any comment from us. No matter in what character she may appear there will be a desire to see her, that seldom attends the advent of an actress. Handsome, piquant, natural and easy, she possesses a charm that is irresistable. Her Martha Savage, in "The Workmen of New York," will long be remembered. Mr. Harry Hawk, who supports her in her different characters, is a great acquisition, and merits the popularity he has acquired.

LA FAYETTE HALL.—On account of the hall having been engaged on Thursday and Friday nights for balls, the great exhibition of McEvoy's Hibernicon, or a tour in Ireland, was necessarily set aside. On Saturday afternoon and night however, the exhibition will be resumed, and also on Monday and Tuesday of next week. This exhibition has met with great success elsewhere, and although it has received a liberal patronage here, the attendance would doubtless have been much greater had Mr. McEvoy have been able to have obtained Masonic Hall. His impersonation of Barney the guide is well worth the price of admission, to say nothing of the musical entertainment.

The New Marriage Bill—Meeting of the Clergy.

The clergymen of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity are requested to meet in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church, (Rev. Dr. Howard's), on Friday, the 23d inst., at 3 o'clock, P. M., to take action in reference to the marriage laws of this State, now under consideration by the Legislature.

George Francis Train and the Fenian Brotherhood.—Those who remember Mr. Train's eloquent speech last winter in favor of the [illegible] high wages [illegible] American laborers, when stumping Pennsylvania at his own expense against England's schemes at Chicago, will be sure to turn out to-night to hear this champion of Irish Nationality, American industry and uncompromising enemy of toadyism to England. There is no hall in town large enough to meet the crowd. The Philadelphia papers say the Academy of Music was jammed on Tuesday night when Mr. Train spoke for the benefit of the Press Club. To-night the proceeds go to Ireland. We learn that the Hall in which Mr. Train will speak will be designated by means of posters.

A Dangerous Game.

About eleven o'clock yesterday some boys started a huge stone from the top of the hill above the basin, which most miraculously landed in a cellar on Liberty street without injury to any one. The stone weighed about fifteen hundred pounds, and by the action of the frost and sun had become loosened to such an extent that it required but little force to start it. Once started, it thundered down the hill, across the track of the Pennsylvania railroad, displacing the rails, and barely missing a car upon the track, and knocking the cap stone from the wall on Liberty street, it bounded across the street, and through the walls of the City Flour Mills of J. S. Liggett & Co., and sunk through a grating into the cellar. A few feet to one side and it would have gone through the boiler of the mill, and caused great damage. An officer was sent to arrest the authors of the mischief, but they succeeded in making their escape. Such recklessness should be severely punished, and we think there are a large number of boys in this city who deserve a severe lesson.

City Mortality.

Dr. George L. McCook, Physician to the Board of Health, makes the following report of the interments in the City of Pittsburgh, from February 10th, to February 18th, 1866.

DISEASES.—Typhoid pneumonia, 1; chronic diarrhea, 1; gangrene of arm, 1; consumption, 4; inflamation of womb, 1; tubercular meningitis; 1; inflamation of lungs, 1; diptheria, 1; erysipelas, 1; cramps, 2; still born, 1; patrid birth, 1, membranous croup; 1; lock jaw, 1; convulsions, 1.

Of the above there were, under one year, 5; from 1 to 2, 1; from 2 to 5, 3; from 5 to 10, 1; from 20 to 30, 2; from 30 to 40, 2; from 40 to 50, 2; from 60 to 70, 1. Males, 14; females, 4; white, 16; colored, 2. Total 18.

The Fenian Meeting.—There appears to be no falling off in the interest attending these meetings, and last night the crowd in attendance was as great as on any previous evening, and the enthusiasm as great. Several speakers addressed the meeting, going over the same grounds as those who preceded them, and of whose remarks we have given a brief synopsis in our former editions. There appears to be no difficulty whatever in obtaining material aid, and we shall miss our figures considerably if Pittsburgh Irishmen do not contribute as much to the fund in proportion to her population, as any city in the Union. At the meeting to-night, an entrance fee of 50 cents will be demanded.

Washington's Birthday.—Yesterday passed off very quietly. A number of stores were closed during the afternoon, and a number of buildings were handsomely decorated with flags. The banks and Post Office were closed, but, independent of a few isolated instances, the business of the day was carried on as usual. In the evening the ball of the Stewart Hook and Ladder Company was the attractive feature.

Fatal Accident.—The Massillon Independent says that on the 24th ult., Mr. Joseph Hodgen, a citizen of Tuscarawas township, in Stark county, was handling a pistol which was loaded, and his little son, a child of between four and five years of age, was near him. By some accidental means the pistol went off, the contents passing through the body of the little boy, which resulted in his death in about fifteen or twenty minutes.

A Good Idea.—The people of Wheeling are discussing the propriety of running a gas pipe out on the Wheeling bridge, in order that steamboats may know the whereabouts of that lofty structure on a dark night. We think this is a good idea, and one which we hope will be carried into effect. Had lights been upon the bridge, the Rubicon would not have met with the accident which happened her a few nights since.

Larceny of a Wagon.—Mayor McCarthy had before him yesterday three men, named Alfred Pearson, Alexander Morrow and Geo. Bassett, charged on oath of James B. Hill with having stolen from him a two-horse spring wagon. The parties entered bail for their appearance on the 1st day of March.

Bowser and Bowser.—The application for a new trial in this case on a writ of error, was argued before the Supreme Court at Philadelphia on Thursday last. Four speeches, we believe, were delivered by counsel, two for and two against the prisoners. The decision of the Court has not as yet transpired.

Fire.—The alarm of fire last night between ten and eleven o'clock, was occasioned by the burning of Marshall's foundry, near the outer depot, in the Ninth Ward. The establishment was entirely consumed. We were unable at that late hour to ascertain the amount of loss. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mrs. Nevin's Case.—The writ of habeas corpus in the case of Mrs. Nevin was made returnable this morning at 9 o'clock. The probabilities are that she will be immediately discharged.

DIED.

DALZELL—On Thursday morning, 22d inst., at 8 o'clock, A. M., ROBERT JAMES, son of James and Jane Dalzell, aged 10 years and 4 months.

Funeral from the residence of his parents, No. 61 Arthurs street, on SATURDAY, at 2 o'clock, P. M. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

CALHOUN—On Thursday morning, at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Nichol, No. 14 Boyle street, Allegheny, at 7 o'clock, JANE, wife of Thomas S. Calhoun.

The funeral will take place on FRIDAY AFTERNOON, at 2 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

KUHNS—On Feb. 21st, 1866, DANIEL KUHNS, of Wilkins township, in the 62d year of his age.

The funeral will take place on FRIDAY, 23d inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M., from his residence, one mile from Burton's Station, on the Wilkinsburg road, and proceed to Beulah Church. All friends are invited to attend.

CEMETERIES.

HILLDALE CEMETERY.—A rural and most picturesque place of Sepulture, situate on the uplands, immediately north of Allegheny City, on the New Brighton Road. Persons wishing to select Burial Lots will apply at the Superintendent's office, at the Cemetery. Title Deeds, Permits and all other business will be attended to at the Drug Warehouse of the undersigned, corner of Federal and Lacock streets, Allegheny.

THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

A fortnight ago doubt may have rested on some minds as to what the President's policy really was. To-day there is no room for uncertainty. His policy consists in treating the rebel leaders as though they had always been loyal; in delivering them from all pains and penalties; in admitting them at once to full participation in the councils of the nation, and so joining with them in a political organization as to enable them speedily to dominate in Congress and in the Cabinet, and as effectually as they did before the war opened. This is not simply to wink at "the highest crime known to the laws;" but to offer inducements for its repetition, and to proffer facilities for future success in it.

By what motives is the President actuated? He took his stand, at the opening of the rebellion, on the side of the Government, severing all his former party associations. He exhibited a moral and a physical heroism not surpassed. His speeches disclosed a clear insight into the causes of the rebellion, the desperation with which it would be prosecuted, and the principles and measures by which alone it could be combatted and subdued. There was no conservatism either in his conceptions or his methods. He was direct, fearless, trenchant. These were the qualities that attracted to him the attention of the nation, and elicited the admiration and respect of every loyal man.

Assuming the presidential office after his private character and habits had passed under a cloud, he reassured the nation by utterances full of the vigor, terseness and patriotism of his better days. The Union party, spontaneously and with one consent rallied to his support. Not a day was he left in doubt as to cordial sympathy and efficient co-operation. From all parts of the loyal States deputations waited on him, tendering aid. Public meetings, almost innumerable, adopted addresses and resolutions, expressive of the fullest confidence. Congress was animated by the same zeal and devotion that inspired the loyal people. The President was in harmony with both.

Who has changed? Neither Congress nor the people; but the President is no longer what he was. In the early summer his tone began to change. It is changing still. He averted his face from his friends, and opened his countenance to his enemies. Copperheads became welcome frequenters of his audience chamber. They instilled the incense of adulation into his ears. He listened, and his ambition was fired to become President, not by the accident of an of an unexpected succession, but as the first choice of the people. Two courses were open to him; to maintain the leadership of his friends,—or attempt to lead his enemies. He chose the latter alternative. Whether the difficulties of this method had a charm for his adventurous and daring nature, or the power of old affiliation allured him, it is useless to conjecture.

True, he protests his innocence of the ambition to compass a re-election. So did TYLER and FILLMORE. Such asseverations deceive no one; least of all men long observant of the sinuosities of politicians. For the present, at least, he must be held to have recanted the most honorable passages in his public life, and to have cast in his lot with copperheads and rebels.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

If President Johnson has a sincere friend, and if that friend is himself sound in head and heart, he will not fail, without loss of time and without concealment, to tell him plainly that persistence in the path he has taken must lead to fatal estrangements. The President is not wise, no friend of his can lay claim to sagacity or wisdom, if he supposes that Congress does not truly represent the fixed and unalterable will of the people.—Commercial.

A notable change has come over the excogitations of our neighbor. For three months past, it has been insanely clamorous for the President's Policy. It has coarsely jeered us because we predicted dangers and alienations from that Policy. In foreshadowing the Veto, it chuckled with [illegible] of demoniac laughter, at the prospective discomfiture of the radicals. Day before yesterday it blazoned its bulletin board with staring letters, declaring that the President was sustained, and evidently exulting that the representatives of the States and the People had been mastered. During the night, all these ideas and emotions evaporated, and it obtained a dim and shadowy apprehension of the fact that the course of the President was leading to fatal estrangements and swift-coming dangers.

If our cotemporary is so utterly demented as not to comprehend the President's policy, and to what results it must conduce, then it ought not to be trusted as a leader and guide of public opinion. If it does understand the nature of that Policy, and its inevitable drift, and has abandoned its position either under dictation or through selfish and sordid motives, then its case is still worse. In either event it stands exposed to the scorn and contempt of every intelligent and honest man.

TOAD-EATERS.

During the pendency of the Freedmen's Bureau bill in the Senate every one of the arguments urged against it by the President were urged in detail by the democratic opponents of the measure. With all these arguments plainly before them Messrs. DIXON, DOOLITTLE, STEWART, MORGAN and NORTON voted for the bill on its original passage, thus showing that they attached no weight to them whatever; but the moment the President rehashes the same stale arguments in a veto message, the minds of these Senators become suddenly enlightened, they see the force of positions which they had unheeded but a day or two before, and straightway change their votes!

No one can believe that this change was wrought by the President's logic. But the President has patronage and they have votes. They pass by the President's logic as idle wind, when it comes from democratic mouths; but when it comes from the bestower of patronage, they toady to it.

THE call for a meeting at Washington, yesterday, to sustain the President, was signed by Rebel sympathisers, exclusively. We have looked over the list carefully, and cannot find on it the name of one well-known Union man. It is signed by AMOS KENDALL, WM. FLINN, Mayor WALLACH, and other well-known democrats, by BRADLEY, the lawyer, who behaved so much like a blackguard in the courts of that city; by LOUIS SCHADE, who defended WIRZ; by the counsel for MRS. SURRATT, by "THOMAS C. QUANTRELL," "W. B. MATTHEWS," "JOS. LIBBEY, JR.," and other names much more familiar to Rebel than Loyal ears. We do not see MONTGOMERY BLAIR's name there, nor that of R. W. LATHAM; but then COWAN and DOOLITTLE were announced to address the meeting, and that would do as well.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY.—The County Republican Convention declared on Tuesday for the Hon. MR. SCOTT as their first choice for Governor, and General JOHN W. GEARY as their second choice.

BRITISH GOLD AND BRITISH MANUFACTURES.

Under the above caption the New York Commercial takes us to task, as follows:

This partisan of competition in railroads, this advocate for permission to "British gold" to construct railroads which may be used to transfer traffic from Philadelphia to New York and Europe, is an ardent advocate of Protection. If a railroad built by British capital will not injure the people of Pennsylvania why will not one built with British rails injure them? and why will not a coat made of British cloth confer the same benefit on the wearer as if made of American cloth? Does it make any difference to any one what be the locality in which a useful thing he requires is made, or what may be the nationality of the person who renders him a service? Why should we refuse the services of an Englishman, or an Irishman, or a German, and gladly accept those of a Yankee or a Pennsylvanian.

To be sure, we are ardent advocates of Protection to our country's manufacturing industry, and also of free trade—within our own country. Moreover, we go in for the utmost development of our country's immeasurable resources, by the construction of railroads wherever they can be made conducive to that end, no matter where the gold to do so comes from, and no matter what kind of traffic they may carry when completed. But give us protection to American industry, and we have no fears but that the traffic which goes to make up our internal commerce will be all right. We shall then have less English rails to carry, but more of the stalwart and wealth-producing men who now fabricate those rails on the other side of the Atlantic.

The Commercial asks: "Why should we refuse the services of an Englishman, or an Irishman, or a German, and gladly accept those of a Yankee or a Pennsylvanian?" To this we need only say, that if that Englishman, or Irishman, or German will only come here and give us his services in any useful employment we will gladly accept him, and pay him better than his present employers do on the other side. But if he prefers to stay where he is, and serve his employer, whether in making iron or broadcloth, why then we decidedly prefer the services of the Yankee and the Pennsylvanian. We think our respected New York contemporary has failed to make out a case of inconsistency against us.

ANOTHER RAILROAD SWINDLE.

A bill passed the House last week, in our State Legislature, to authorize the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company to build branches wherever it pleases, and containing the following section:

SEC. 4. That before commencing the construction of any branch road under the provisions of this act, the said company shall cause a map of the location thereof, including the length of the road and the width of the road bed, to be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and upon the filing of the said map THE SAID COMPANY SHALL HAVE A VALID TITLE TO THE LOCATION AS THEREIN INDICATED; Provided, The construction of the road shall be commenced within two years thereafter and be completed within five years.

Under this section that Company can survey a route anywhere in the State, within one or two hundred miles of its line, and hold possession of it to the exclusion of any other Company, for five years. This is a monstrous power to give to any company. The purpose of it simply is to prevent any other company from building a road to compete with the Pennsylvania Road or Pennsylvania and Erie road.

This bill was smuggled through the House, and is now on its third reading in the Senate. We trust that its passage there will be prevented. Let the Senators look well to it. The passage of such a monstrous iniquity will damn any man who votes for it.

KIDNAPPING FREEDMEN.

The Atlanta (Ga.) correspondent of the rebel sympathising New York News, makes statements which show that the alleged kidnapping of freedmen and sending them to Cuba to be sold as slaves, is but too well founded. He says:

"Your readers will be surprised to hear that the slave trade has been revived in the South. They will be more surprised to hear that this odious traffic does not consist in the seizure of wild Africans in their native state, and their importation to this country, but in the deportation of native freedmen from the United States and their sale to Cuban planters. The parties engaged in the business are of course very cautious and secret in their movements, and leave as few tracks behind them as possible; but however well their plans may be laid, the truth will come to light in due season. A trustworthy gentleman, he further says, informed him that he had been approached in Atlanta, and offered $25 per head for every able-bodied freedman he could get to go with him to Arkansas. He had heard rumors of slave traffic, and thinking this was simply a branch of it, refused the offer. A letter has quite recently been received in Georgia, from General Robert Toombs, at Havana, stating that he had just met in the streets of that city his former carriage driver, a negro, who told him he had been inveigled from his house in Georgia and sold to a Cuban slave dealer for thirteen hundred dollars. Gen. Toombs further stated that the slave trade does actually exist between this country and Cuba."

KENTUCKY.

"Popular opinion, our courts of justice, and the Legislature, have made, of all the offences in the category, that of being loyal to the Government of the United States the greatest crime. Any other crime may be tolerated; but to be a Union man is odious. We were invited to come forward and peril all we had that was worth living for to aid in putting down the rebellion. Thousands of our best men went into the army of the United States. Others, who were not able to go into the field, gave their means to forward the good cause. The rebellion has succumbed to force; we who survive find ourselves exposed to the vengeance of our State courts, to legislative proscription, and to popular odium; and when we invoke the aid of the National Government to protect its loyal citizens, we are [illegible] told that the General Government cannot do anything. That the State governments can use their machinery to persecute men for being loyal to the Federal government, without let or hindrance, is a dogma tenaciously adhered to by the politicians of Kentucky, and is acquiesced in by the authorities at Washington.

VIRGINIA.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, writing from Warwick county, Va., says:

I have previously hinted that, however well in most parts of the State of Virginia the negroes are protected and their labor remunerated, that result is only kept up by the absolute force of the Government. Every day's experience in my travels still more assures me of this fact. Were it not for the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau stationed in every county and district, and the presence of some military force, it would not be a week before the ex-Rebs would destroy the independent labor of the freedmen and invent some system of peonage, apprenticeship, pauper or Cooly pretext, by whatever name the rose might be called, which would in fact make the condition of the poor fellows worse than before. This is avowed by many of their politicians, when they can talk in apparent secrecy.

TEXAS.—The Commissioner of the Freedman's Bureau in Texas closes his report with the following language:

"I can also report that instances of shooting, cruel abuse and violent assaults upon freedmen, are perceptibly on the decrease, although quite frequent, especially where there are no United States troops. No instance of this kind, that comes to the attention of the bureau, is permitted to pass without trial and punishment.

"These cases almost defy any attempt to record them, and are reckoned by hundreds, ranging from downright murder, savage beatings, merciless whippings, hunting men with trained bloodhounds, through all the lesser degrees of cruelty and crime."

THE only Republicans who voted against the resolutions adopted by the House on Tuesday, declaring that no Representatives should be permitted to occupy seats in Congress from the Southern States until Congress had formally [illegible] into the Union, were [illegible] of New York. If a [illegible] is wanted for any purpose, he can always be found in New York.

INDICATIONS AT WASHINGTON.

THE FEELING IN UNION CIRCLES.

As an indication of the feeling which prevails in Union circles, one of the strongest Union-men in the House thus expressed himself to-day: "I have striven conscientiously, up to this moment, with all my power to promote harmony, and prevent a separation, but now the President has made the issue clear, I now throw aside my gloves, and henceforth it is war to the knife."

THE TRAITOR'S TOAST.

The character of those who last night went to serenade the President may be judged by the circumstance that three of the prominent leaders of the crowd walked up to the bar of Williard's Hotel, and with great parade drank the toast: "The three greatest Americans—Jefferson Davis, Andrew Johnson, and Robert E. Lee."

THE New York Daily News—which never found an official act of ABRAHAM LINCOLN that it could sustain or one of JEFFERSON DAVIS that it did not approve—thus hails the Veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill:

"No act of the President has gratified us so much. None has given us so much confidence in his patriotism and integrity. None has inclined us to trust so hopefully to his wisdom and his statesmanship to guide the country safely through the dangers with which the madness of the Radicals still surround it. At one bound he has risen to the Constitution and to those great principles of government which he enunciated so distinctly in his annual message, and which he so strikingly reiterated in his interview with the Virginia delegation, but a few days ago."

THE House of Representatives on Monday last adopted two resolutions, first that the rebellion deprived the people of the disloyal States of all civil rights; and second, that it is the duty of Congress in such case, to enable the people of such States to establish a Republican form of government. Both of these resolutions contained the exact language used by the President less than a year ago; yet every friend of the President in the House voted against them! and it is considered by them an act of hostility to him thus to enact the President's own words!

"We may calculate that there will be an American demand for English iron for many years yet, and the time is yet distant when our cousins will beat us out of their own markets, and also contend for others which, at present, are entirely in our own hands; that is, provided the principles of free trade prevail, and no successful attempts are made to stamp out our American trade by high duties."—London Colliery Guardian, Jan. 27.

It is hardly necessary to write a commentary upon this text. It is plain enough. We merely commend it to the attention of the members of Congress.

WHEN Mr. LINCOLN was President, WM. LLOYD GARRISON, WENDELL PHILLIPS, FRED. DOUGLASS, and other leading Abolitionists found no difficulty in obtaining halls to lecture in, in Washington City, Mr. LINCOLN giving to their lectures the endorsement of his personal attendance. But under his successor those gentlemen now find it impossible to obtain any place in that city in which to deliver an address. Do revolutions go backwards?

THE Washington Chronicle says that the call for a public meeting in New York to sustain the Veto, appeared simultaneously with the Veto itself. This proves what was before apparent that, while the Union men of the country were totally unaware of what the President designed to do, the Copperheads were everywhere posted and made acquainted with his purposes.

COUNTING CHICKENS TOO SOON.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press sets down Fayette, Greene, Crawford, Lawrence, Carbon, and several other counties as being certain for Gen. GEARY. He is too fast. Fayette, Crawford and Carbon are for MOORHEAD, Greene has instructed for KETCHUM, Lawrence has not yet decided, and many other counties in his list are doubtful. It is never safe to count chickens until they are hatched.

NO NEW PARTY.—The democrats of Missouri decline to form, or help in forming, a new party, and tell the conservatives they must join that party if they want to sustain the President. The democratic presses generally do the same. There will be no new party. The Republican party will maintain the cause of freedom, as heretofore, and those who want to betray that cause will have to find refuge with their Copperhead allies.

OHIO ALL RIGHT.—In both branches of the Ohio legislature, as soon as the President's veto was received, the Democratic members offered resolutions endorsing and approving it. They failed signally—9 to 16 in the Senate, and 22 to 54 in the House—a strict party vote.

ONE "E. C. BENEDICT" writes through the New York Times to Hon. H. J. RAYMOND, sustaining him in voting with the Democrats in Congress in support of the President. The natural affinity between BENEDICT and ARNOLD has drawn these two together.

NEW JERSEY.—The Republican legislature of New Jersey, by a strict party vote in both houses, has laid on the table resolutions offered by Democratic members endorsing the veto.

BUTLER COUNTY.—JOHN N. PURVIANCE and JAMES MCJUNKIN, Esqrs., are the delegates to the Union State Convention. Instructed for Gen. MOORHEAD.

Delegates to the Union State Convention.

The Senatorial and Representative Conventions of the National Union party, met this morning, in their respective districts to elect delegates to the State Convention, which will meet on the 7th of March next. The following was the result of the election:

[illegible]

The delegation is believed to stand thus for Governor:

For Ketchum, [illegible]; for Geary, 9; for Moorhead, 1.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

THERE was a general jail delivery at Elkhorn, Wisconsin, last Tuesday, all the prisoners escaping, among whom were the notorious Joe Brown, the robber of Bostwick & Co.'s bank, and two horse thieves confined there. Brown's wife went from Chicago that night, and at about 9 o'clock, it is supposed, unlocked the jail with false keys.

THE Decatur, Illinois, Magnet and the Mattoon Gazette say the winter wheat crop has been killed, in those localities, by the cold weather, and the Springfield Journal says the fruit crop thereabouts has been hopelessly destroyed.

A LAD [illegible] in the abdomen, at Chicago, by his brother, a returned soldier, who drew a pistol upon his father. The boy sprang in front of the weapon and saved his father, at the sacrifice, probably, of his own life.

PUBLIC OPINION ON THE VETO.

[From the Cincinnati Gazette.]

Before examining the President's specific objections to the bill, we shall notice his assumption that he is the embodiment of the whole people, while Congress only represents single districts. This is contrary to the whole letter and spirit of our Constitution. The pretension is the more remarkable in one whom the people did not elect to the office of President.

Nor can he claim to be the representative of the late rebel States, over Congress, for they did not help to elect him any more than they did Congress. And when he disables the power of Congress because those States are not represented, he disables his own office, for they are not represented in it by their own voice. The legislature which had constitutional power to put down the rebellion, has the same power to settle the terms of peace. To disable one disables the other.

[From the Ohio State Journal.]

But we have no desire to go into all the objections which might be urged to the Message of the President, in detail. It may well cause doubts in the mind of the Executive as to the correctness of his position, when bells are rung and caps thrown up by the party which has, all through the war, given a cowardly sort of aid and comfort to the rebellion, while Union men go about the streets sadly, feeling that the cause for which we have battled with such expenditure of blood and treasure, against open, armed foes in front, and secret, insidious traitors in the rear, is in peril from one of its most cherished and trusted defenders.

[From the Chicago Republican.]

The reasons of the President are those of a man who, finding himself thwarted in his own policy, is determined that, if he cannot have his way, no other branch of the Government shall do so. The bill which has been vetoed provides only such remediable authority as is made necessary by the failure or refusal of the States to afford the means of justice and the means of protection to the vast population now living as social and political outcasts. The Southern States refuse to recognize practically, the freedom of the blacks; Congress has provided tribunals and authority to recognize and enforce that freedom; the whole South, clinging most tenaciously to slavery, are opposed to such tribunals, and the President says the blacks shall not have this national shield from the oppression of their former owners, overseers, and oppressors!

The country will learn with amazement that the President has vetoed an act whose title might justly have been "An act to enforce the bill of rights."

[From the New York Tribune.]

There is not one rebel, from Canada to Brazil inclusive, who is not enraptured by this veto—not a resident of the north who rejoiced over the Union defeats at Bull Run, Gaines's Mill, Groveton, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville or the Chickamauga, who does not bless President Johnson for uttering it. Perhaps, they will continue thus fervent, and perhaps not. Let us patiently observe and remember.

[From the Lancaster (Pa.) Express.]

The true friends of Andrew Johnson—those who stood by him when rebels and copperheads alike sought his ruin and defeat—will deeply regret that he should be so radically opposed to a measure which passed both Houses of Congress by a two-thirds vote, and received the approbation of loyal people north and south. In some of his objections the President is certainly in error, and the conference between him and Congress is so stoical, on some important points, that his veto cannot be sustained by the representatives of the people.

[From the Philadelphia North American.]

On carefully considering the views expressed by President Johnson in his veto message, we see no reason to depart from the position we assumed in favor of the Freedmen's Bureau bill at the time of its passage through Congress. Our great respect for the President, and approval of the general policy governing his administration, impresses us with extreme reluctance to differ from him on measures of so much importance as that which has called forth his veto. If we could, consistently with a sense of duty, agree with him in this case, it would afford us as much pleasure to do so as it now gives us pain to do the reverse.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

We can best understand our Duties in this solemn emergency by fearlessly stating the Dangers of the Republic. Among these latter may be classed the postponement or defeat of every essential amendment of the National Constitution—the remission to new horrors of the freedmen of the South—the Executive opposition to every bill for the improvement of the District of Columbia, including the political and civil elevation of the resident colored race—the reorganization in every insurgent section of the recent rebels—the expulsion or discouragement of free emigration to the South—a system of wide and merciless proscription of independent and earnest men—the pardon, if not the honorable restoration to their rights, of Jefferson Davis, John C. Breckinridge and the leading traitors; and the resuscitation, by Federal patronage, of the entire Copperhead party. These are the Dangers of the situation; Dangers, however, that may be anticipated and prevented, if we are only bold and fearless in the knowledge and in the discharge of our imperative Duties. And what are these? In the first place to sustain those faithful and obedient Representatives in Congress, the organs, as they are, of the loyal millions of the Republic, in their recent almost unanimous votes in favor of universal suffrage, and in favor of the bill just vetoed by the President.

[From the Boston Advertiser.]

The grave character of the issue thus suddenly joined between the legislative and executive branches of our government will not escape the attention of our readers. It is an issue which it was worth much serious effort to avoid—not for the interests of party which are temporary and inconsiderable, but for the sake of national interests, which are momentous and eternal. But if it has indeed come, we know not how Congress can decline to meet it openly and firmly, relying upon the certain support of the great majority of the American people, in a steadfast adherence to the course marked out alike by self-respect and by the demands of public safety.

[From the Chicago Evening Journal.]

While it must be conceded that there is great force in some of the President's objections, we nevertheless regret exceedingly that he should have deemed it his duty to have withheld his approval from a measure which, notwithstanding its objectionable features, would, as it seems to us, be salutary in its practical effects.

A Washington correspondent relates the following concerning the present opinions of General Grant:

"General Grant's opinion of the admission of the Southern members, as expressed in a late conversation is, that those who are loyal and who are elected by loyal constituents and can take the test oath, should be received. This, he said, would admit [illegible] all. On being told there were [illegible] he at once replied that [illegible] State should not be received. He [illegible] proved of the Freedmen's Bureau bill [illegible] that he thought that only army [illegible] be employed by the Bureau in order to save expense. He is in favor of trying the editor of the Richmond Examiner for treason. He is firm in his opposition to the withdrawal of troops."

Savannah.—The Savannah Republican, in noting the departure of the [illegible] New York volunteers, says:

The regiment, though small, made a fine appearance as they marched down Bay street, headed by their drum corps, the national colors floating in the cheerful sunlight. Thus day by day the last vestige of military power is being withdrawn from our State, but it will no doubt be a long time before we shall witness the total withdrawal of the military from our borders. One thing is certain, it would not be promotive of the safety and welfare of Unionists to do so.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AYER'S AGUE CURE, for the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arises from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S SON & CO., and by all Druggists. ja16:2md&wF

BETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN HAIR TONIC.

THE DRESSING AND RESTORER OF THE AGE.

TURKISH BANDOLENIAN.

BETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN. What can be more acceptable than anything that will beautify? that will restore nature's decay by stopping the hair from falling out, restoring its natural color, making it to grow in luxuriance and beauty, assist in putting it up according to the present style and fashion and keep it in place? This Betrouvey's Turkish Bandolenian Hair Tonic will do, and for proof we refer you to any person who has tried it. It is acknowledged to be the beautifier of the age, the only Hair Tonic and Restorer worthy of the name. In Turkey, in France, in England, in America—everywhere where the "Bandolenian" is known—it is pronounced the ne plus ultra of Hair Preparations. Remember, it is free from all metallic poisons that are contained in most Hair Colors and dressings. It is the extract of many flowers and herbs, beautifully put up, an ornament to the toilet.

For sale by all Druggists and Perfumers, wholesale.

DOLLAR SAVINGS BANK, No. 59 FOURTH STREET.

CHARTERED IN 1855.

Open daily from 9 to 2 o'clock, also on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, from May 1st to November 1st, from 7 to 9 o'clock, and from November 1st to May 1st, from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Deposits received of all sums of not less than One Dollar, and a dividend of the profits declared twice a year, in June and December. Interest has been declared semi-annually in June and December since the Bank was organized, at the rate of six per cent. a year.

Interest, if not drawn out, is placed to the credit of the depositor as principal, and bears the same interest from the first days of June and December, compounding twice a year without troubling the depositor to call, or even to present his pass book. At this rate money will double in less than twelve years.

Books containing the Charter, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, furnished gratis, on application at the office.

INSURANCE

INSURE YOUR LIFE IN THE

of Hartford, Conn.

THE ONLY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN AMERICA that now makes and pays an Annual CASH DIVIDEND on the first and each subsequent payment of premium. Its CASH CAPITAL, an accumulation of $1,500,000, is securely invested in public stocks and mortgages of REAL ESTATE. It is now in its 16th year of business, and has paid to the WIDOWS AND ORPHANS of its members the sum of ONE MILLION DOLLARS. To this date not a single case of litigation has occurred, an evidence that liberality and fair dealing is a specialty with this Company.

The policies of this Company are not forfeited by reason of non-payment of premium after the second year. No payments required after ten years, but policies continue good through life.

The Oakland Passenger Railway.

A public meeting was held recently, at Oakland, for the purpose of remonstrating against the present management of the Oakland and East Liberty Passenger Railway. Mr. Semple was called to the chair, and Mr. W. M. Murray acted as Secretary. An animated expression of sentiment followed, in which the present management of the road was strongly criticised. The system of discrimination in the matter of fare was condemned as unjust, and a uniform rate of fare for all the patrons of the road was demanded.

Mr. Dunlap read a communication from the President of the road, in which he accounted for the irregularity of the cars. The reason for the cars not being run more frequently, was from the fact that the Wylie Street Company refused to run their cars more then once every twenty minutes. This necessitates the Oakland Company to keep the same schedule time, else the cars would meet on the Fourth street part of the road, on the same track. After the 1st proximo the schedule will be amended so that the cars will leave every fifteen minutes. The President of the road stated, also, that the fare would be reduced, and the following new rates be adopted: From Pittsburgh to Soho, six cents; to Oakland, eleven trip tickets for $1; sixty trip tickets for $5; one hundred and twenty-five for $20. The new rates were not satisfactory to the meeting; instead of a reduction it was an increase, as the fare tickets to Oakland are now sold twelve for $1. Another matter of complaint was the snail pace at which the cars run, the time schedule between Pittsburgh and Oakland being forty minutes. The matter of the passage by the Legislature of the bill granting the Company the authority to increase the rates of fare, was also discussed. The bill was "shoved," they said, through as an amendment or proviso to the Union Turnpike act.

It was further charged at the meeting, that the cars were kept in a bad condition, the windows of some of them having been broken and left unrepaired during the winter. A committee, consisting of Hon. Geo. Wilson, John Moorhead, Esq., and Dr. Hostetter, was appointed to wait upon the officers of the road, to notify them of the action of the meeting. The committee was instructed to report at an adjourned meeting, to be held on Saturday evening. In the meantime A. W. Foster, Esq., was authorized to draw up a memorial to the Legislature, asking for a repeal of the late amendment to the charter of the company, so as to secure the old rates of fare. If the action of the road officials will prove satisfactory the memorial will not be presented.

The Fenian Congress—The O'Mahony Party Attempt a Reconciliation.

A movement is now on foot for a reconciliation of the differences between the O'Mahony and the Roberts factions of the Fenian Brotherhood. A Committee was recently appointed in Washington, under the auspices of the irrepressible George Francis Train, to consult with the Fenian Congress, in session in this city, and endeavor to effect a reconciliation. The following paper has been drawn up by the Committee, and will probably be presented to the Congress to-day:

To the Friends of Ireland Convened in Pittsburgh.—Fellow-Countrymen:—Fresh from the nation's capital, and with thrilling news from Ireland still ringing in our ears, we appeal for the second and last time, to your patriotism, and call upon you to unite your fortunes with your brothers in Canada, your representatives in France, your compatriots in Ireland, and the eight hundred and thirteen circles of the Fenian Brotherhood in the United States. This is no time for personal feeling and we declare ourselves free of it. This is no time for divided councils, and we declare ourselves willing to sacrifice all personal repugnancies, so that not even one sincere man may stand between us and complete unity.

We ask a single preliminary evidence of sincerity and pledge of Brotherhood; that you signify your unabated confidence in the authority of James Stevens, and promise by solemn resolution to apply whatever resources may be granted to your guardianship, in such manner as the constituted authorities of the Irish Republic shall determine. To this the Fenian Brotherhood has been always pledged, so we ask no new test. To this no one, manifestly, can object, and go before the public, Irish or American, as a Fenian. Should you accede to our proffer, we shall consider further details easily arranged. Should you refuse to give this unequivocal testimony to your policy, we shall consider our mission as an end, and all further efforts at conciliation useless.

Leaving the wisdom of your decision to the arbitrament of conscience and posterity, we are, gentlemen,

Your obedient servants,
John Curley,
Catholic Priest.
B. Doran Killian.

We are not posted in regard to the differences between the two parties, but the feeling is said to be so bitter that there is no likelihood of a cordial reconciliation.

Washington's Birthday—School Celebration.

The schools of Pitt township celebrated the natal day of the immortal Washington in very admirable style this forenoon. The subject was brought before the Board of Directors, some time since, by William M. Gormly, Esq., and as the suggestion met with a unanimous approval, the necessary preparations were made for a fitting celebration of the day. There are two schools in the township—one located in Oakland and the other in Minersville. The schools assembled in neat attire, in both houses, and in the former the Farewell Address was read by Mr. Gormly, and in the latter by Mr. J. W. Logan. A number of appropriate songs were then sung, and the exercises were not only of a pleasing but instructive character, and calculated to inspire the minds of the young with veneration for the memory of Washington.

This manner of celebrating the day meets with our cordial approval, and we hope that, in the future, all our schools will adopt it. Since the day has been made a national holiday, and the schools are generally dismissed from their ordinary studies, nothing could be more appropriate than to spend an hour or two in listening to short addresses, singing national songs, and engaging in other exercises of a patriotic character. By this means, the minds of the young can be made familiar with the character of Washington, and the principal events of his life; and in future years, the return of the 22d of February will ever be associated with the most pleasant recollections.

A Handsome Collection.—Mr. John Wilson, of the firm of Watt Wilson, sends us the following note: "I desire to acknowledge the receipt of $200 from Mr. Hugh M. Bole, collected by him, principally in the First Ward Pittsburgh, and surrounding neighborhood. It will be applied to alleviate the distress of the sufferers by the late fire on Prospect street." The sum collected by Mr. Bole is certainly creditable, and his efforts in behalf of the sufferers by the late calamity are most praiseworthy.

We Learn from the Beaver Argus that the "Greenback Oil Company," situated on the Little Beaver Creek, a short distance below the mouth of Island Run, struck a good vein of oil last week. On Saturday they had it tubed, and it is now flowing. We are informed that it flows fifteen or twenty barrels per day. The Calhoun Oil Company, at the mouth of Island Run, also had a good show of oil last week, and are preparing to tube it.

The Case of McGrew & Co., vs. Stone.—This case, which has been on trial in the Court of Common Pleas, for eight days past, was brought to a conclusion this morning, the jury finding a verdict for the defendant. The parties are well known coal merchants, and the suit was brought to recover damages, in a large amount, sustained by the plaintiffs in the loss of three barges loaded with coal, through the alleged carelessness of the agents of the defendant. The case will probably go to the Supreme Court.

The dwelling-house of Mrs. Londis, a widow lady, residing in Moon township, in Beaver county, was entirely consumed by fire on Wednesday evening of last week. The fire caught from a candle which had been left in the garret by an insane member of the family. We understand that very little of the contents were saved, and that it was with some difficulty that all of the members of the family escaped.

Dyer, the book-keeper of the National Bank of Crawford county, who was convicted of robbing the bank a year ago, and sent to the penitentiary, was pardoned recently by Governor Curtin, at the request of the Governor of Michigan, and other prominent citizens of that State, who had personal knowledge of his previous good character.

Held for Court.—The three Hebrews, Schultz, Levy and La Grange, charged with obtaining two hundred and ten dollars by false representations, from Mr. Sanders, Superintendent of Lonsdale's Cemetery, in Reserve township, have been admitted to bail by Mayor Morrison, for their appearance at Court.

Adultery.—Archibald Gilbraith, charged with adultery, on oath of his wife, was committed to jail to-day by Alderman Strain, for a further hearing on Saturday. The defendant resides at Ireland station, Versailles township.

Forcible Entry.—Robert Robb, of Robinson township, was before Alderman Strain to-day on a charge of forcible entry, preferred by John R. Large, Esq. He gave bail for a hearing.

Soldiers' League.—We understand that the soldiers who served in the late rebellion, residing on the north side of the rivers, are making arrangements to organize a branch league.

Assault and Battery.—Thomas Donnelly was committed to jail to-day, by Alderman Taylor, to answer a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Wm. Woodward.

Dull.—There was no business of public interest transacted at the Mayor's office today. The city is at present enjoying apparent immunity from crime.

Godey's Lady's Book for March, can be obtained of W. A. Gildenfenny, No. 45 Fifth street, near Wood.

The Courts were not in session to-day, having adjourned over in honor of the memory of Washington.

"Beadle's Monthly" for March, can be had of John P. Hunt & Co., Masonic Hall, 5th street.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY, Feb. 22, 1866.

There are no new features of a financial character worthy of special notice. Business was pretty generally suspended, it being Washington's birth-day, and the banks, post office, and quite a number of business houses were closed throughout the day.

—The New York bank statement for last week shows an increase of specie, which indicates that the Secretary of the Treasury has been selling gold freely. It is also semi-officially announced from Washington, that he will be a further seller of coin, and in the next eight or ten days will put on the market about a million of dollars. This announcement of the Secretary's purpose is wise, and carries with it a dignity of purpose that reflects much credit upon the Secretary, and will do much to lift gold from the vortex of speculation. It is not improbable that we shall see gold at lower figures within the next fortnight.

—It is not generally known that the first issue of United States demand notes are redeemable in gold by the department. Arguing that as these notes are receivable for customs, and consequently as valuable in such transactions as gold, the United States Treasurer has been accepting them on deposit and redeeming them as gold. There are $235,345,75 in this currency in circulation, of which amount $15,345,75 are in the possession of assistant treasurers.

—The heavy imports of foreign manufactures are justly attracting serious attention. At New York, last week, the import entries and customs payments were extraordinarily large, the figures having in them a market caution for "all whom it may concern." Of the former, however, about one-third the dry goods went into bond. The customs duties paid in gold were nearly three millions, making thus far in February, (15 business days,) $7,463,687. If the entries at the outports have been in the usual proportion, the Government has already realized ten millions in gold revenue this month, a portion of which was turned into currency at the New York office last week, at the rates 139@137½ per cent. The export clearances of cotton and other domestic produce were kept back by unfavorable shipping weather, and fall short in value of the previous week. The sales of foreign and domestic merchandise were on a fair scale of imported dry goods. The holders of domestic cotton goods appear reluctant to make further concessions in price, but some descriptions, we understand, were again marked down near the close of the week.

—The following shows the exports (exclusive of specie) from New York to foreign ports for the week ending February 20 and since January 1:

	1864.	1865.	1866.
For the week	$2,983,865	$5,163,466	$4,993,307
Prev. reported	20,209,483	32,204,157	27,994,513
Since Jan. 1	$23,193,348	$37,367,623	$32,987,820

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, Feb. 22, 1866.

CATTLE—The arrivals of cattle at these yards were again light this week, so also, was the demand, and the market consequently ruled dull and heavy, and prices are still drooping. The attendance of buyers was very slim, and the few that were here bought very gingerly and only at very low figures, which is owing to the dullness and general stagnation which has prevailed in the eastern markets for some time, and shippers allege that they have been losing heavily for weeks past. The very best grades of fat cattle, suitable for retailing in the eastern markets, sold at from 6 to 6¾ gross, and but one or two droves changed hands above 6 cents. It is but proper to remark, however, that there were some extra cattle on sale which could not have been bought below 7 to 7½, but no one could be found willing to go above our quotations, and holders, refusing to take less, shipped further east, where they hope to find a better market and realize higher prices. Common and medium cattle were very dull, selling at from 5 to 5½, while scalawags were almost unsaleable. It does seem strange that farmers and drovers will persist in shipping this class of stock to market, knowing (at least they ought to know) that they can scarcely realize enough to pay for transportation and feed bills.

HOGS—Market has been less active this week than last, though prices have undergone no material change. The reports from the east yesterday and to-day were regarded as very unfavorable, and buyers are now asking for concessions, which holders, as yet, are unwilling to grant, and we continue to quote at 10 to 10¾, gross, for good averages—some few bunches of extra bringing 10,55 up to 10¾. It is said that the reports of the Hog disease has restricted very much the retail demand in the East; and if there is any foundation for the rumor, there is no doubt but what the consumption of the Hog product will be very materially reduced, and the results flowing from this will be very disastrous to some of those engaged in the trade.

SHEEP—The supply of Sheep this week, although not unusually large, was nevertheless considerably in excess of the demand, and the market continues dull, and prices, as compared with last week, have declined from ¼ to ½ cent per pound. We now quote at 4 to 6 cts gross, for common to prime fat mutton sheep, and there was but one drove sold at the outside quotation.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, Feb. 22, 1866.

This being the 22d of February—Washington's birthday—was observed as a kind of holiday, the banks and post office being closed, and business, consequently, was very light, and we have but few round lot operations to report. There is no improvement to note in the tone of the general markets, either as regards prices or demand, and there is next to nothing doing, except in a retail way.

GRAIN—Sale of 1 car prime Ohio Red at $1,90; and 1 car Chicago Spring, and 1 car Michigan White, both on private terms. Oats dull but unchanged—may be quoted at 40@42, on track and 45@48 in small lots. Sale of 600 bush prime Ear Corn, to arrive, at 65. Rye is in demand at 75c. No demand for Barley.

FLOUR—Demand light but the market is steady and prices are unchanged. Small sales from store at $8¼@8½ for Spring Wheat, and $10¼@10½ for Winter Wheat brands. Sale of 100 bbls at $10¼. Rye Flour is quoted dull at $5¼@5½ per bbl, and Buckwheat Flour is quoted steady at $9.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady, with a fair local demand at 14½@15 for Shoulders; 17¼@18 for Sides; and 23@23½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is firm and prime kettle rendered is quoted at 18@18¼. Small sales of Mess Pork at $29@30. No movement in Bulk Meats.

POTATOES—The supply is almost entirely exhausted, and with a very good local demand, the market is firm, with an upward tendency. We continue to quote at $1,15@1,20 per bushel, and $3¼@3¾ per bbl.

APPLES—Demand fair and market steady with regular sales in a small way at $6¼ to $7½ per bbl.

BUTTER—Is coming in pretty freely, but, as yet the demand seems to keep pace with the supply. Sale of 16 pkgs at 38; and 15 do choice at 40.

EGGS—Sales of 10 bbls at 38.

CHEESE—Is quiet but unchanged at 21 cts for Hamburg, and 22c for Goshen.

BEANS—Steady with a fair demand and regular sales at $1¾@2 per bush—Sale of 28 bbls at $2¼ per bush.

SEEDS—Small sales from store at $7@7¼ for Clover, and $3½@4 for Timothy. Flaxseed is in demand and sells readily at $2½.

HOMINY—Is dull but unchanged—sales at 3c to the trade, and 3½@3¾ in a small way.

HAY—Sale of 1 car baled fair quality, at $16 per ton.

ONIONS—Quiet and unchanged at $3½@3¾ per bbl.

OIL—Sales of No. 1 Lard—city manufacture—at $1,35. Cincinnati make is held higher—small sales reported at $1,38@1,35.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, Feb. 22, 1866.

CRUDE—There is no new characteristic in the Crude market worthy of special notice. The demand, on the spot, continues very light both for home use as well as shipment, and the market is dull and prices are entirely nominal at 19@20, bbls returned, and 24@25, bbls included. Sale of 125 bbls Green Co. oil at 28, bbls included. For future delivery, there is but little doing, though we continue to hear of offers being made to sell at 18, to be delivered on the opening of navigation. We have one heavy transaction to record, in which T. E. Tack is the seller and O. S. McIlwaine, the buyer—one barrel, to be delivered in July, seller's option, 10 days notice, at 15, package returned. This may seem to be a very low figure, but we can vouch for its correctness, as we saw the contract.

REFINED—Bonded oil is dull for present, but there is considerable inquiry for future delivery, and as buyers and sellers are approaching closer together in their views and feelings, there will doubtless be considerable activity manifested within the next thirty or sixty days. Sale of 500 bbls "Lucifer" brand, for immediate delivery, at 37 cents, free on board cars here. Free Oil is dull and nominal at 58@60, for good standard brands.

NAPTHA AND RESIDUUM—Sale of 100 bbls Residuum at $4¼; and 100 do do at $4½. There is no demand whatever for Naptha, and there is not enough doing in the article to establish quotations.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Finance and Trade.

New York, Feb. 22.—At the Stock Exchange to-day a close holiday was observed, in honor of the birthday of Washington. The Sub-Treasury Banks and other financial institutions closed, and the street was almost deserted. Very few brokers are to be found in their offices.

In compliance with an act of the Legislature of this State, no contracts are fulfilled to-day, and those which were not attended to yesterday, go over till to-morrow.

The nominal prices quoted this morning are as follows: United States Sixes of '81, coupons, 104; coupons '62, 103; Ten-Forties, coupons, 90¾; United States Certificates, 98¾; New York Central, 91¼; Erie, 80; Hudson River, 108½; Reading, 99¾; Michigan Southern, 69¾; Pittsburgh, 73½; Northwestern, 27; do. preferred, 54¼; Toledo, 107; Rock Island, 108¾; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 25¼.

RIVER NEWS.

ARRIVALS.

Winchester	Shepherd	Parkersburg.
Nevada	Evans	St. Louis.

BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.

Lorena	Shuman	St. Louis.
Kenton	Dunlap	Louisville.
Winchester	Shepherd	Parkersburgh.

RIVER, WEATHER, ETC.

The river is again falling, with about seven feet water in the channel. The weather is very warm, and appearances indicate rain. Business at the landing yesterday was rather dull on account of it being Washington's birthday.

The following boats are now in port: Robt. Moore, Nevada, Winchester, Armenia, Camelia, Nora, America, Julia No. 2, Lorena, Kate Putnam, Emma No. 3, Yorktown, Kenton, Silver Lake No. 4, Leni Leoti, Citizen, Leonidas and Savanna.

The Lorena, Capt. Shuman, is loading for St. Louis, and will most probably get away this evening.

The Kenton, Capt. Dunlap, has nearly completed her load for Louisville, and will leave this evening for that port.

The Winchester, Capt. Asa Shepherd is the regular packet leaving to-day for Parkersburg.

The Nevada, Capt. Evans, arrived yesterday having discharged most of her freight at points below. Her manifest will be found elsewhere.

The Columbia left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Monday evening.

The Armenia, Captain McCallum, is fast filling up with freight for New Orleans, and will leave, if possible, on Saturday. Shippers will do well to hurry up their freight before the river falls, so that she cannot get out.

The Pine Grove, Captain Aniwalt, was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday last.

The cabin of the Golden Era recently sunk at Dogham ripples has been torn from the boat and totally destroyed by the floating ice. Her cabin furniture, which was stored in the texas, was lost.

The Cause of the Late Explosions.—The Memphis Appeal of Friday last devoted a column to the lucid diagnosis of the late steamboat boiler explosions, the pith or kernel of which is fully explained in the following paragraph. What have our local inspectors to say now? The whole thing is explained, and the remedy is in substituting copper or brass boilers in the place of iron:

"Keeping these premises or facts in view, we now come to the immediate cause of steamboat explosions. It is known that when heated, iron and its following oxyds decompose water namely: the proto oxid of iron, the per oxid, protochloride, perchloride, proto iodide, per iodide, proto bromide, proto fluoride, proto sulphuret, sesquie sulphuret, magnetic iron, pyrites, bi-sulphuret, diphosphuret, carburets, per phosphuret, graphite, cast iron, steel, protocyanuret, proto sulphocyanuret sesquie sulphocyanuret, and all other preparations of iron decompose water when coming in contact with them at red heat; its oxygen readily combines with the iron, producing the various oxides above mentioned, many of which, in themselves so readily combine with oxygen, even at round temperature as to be often used in eudimetry."—Courier.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1867.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

PITTSBURGH, December 21, 1863.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness: R. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1865.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.

PITTSBURGH, November 14, 1859.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT,

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-weather periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Not two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unreasonable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.
